ON THE STEPS AT THE MCLEAN HOUSE - The photo above shows students from the 13 original colonies visiting at the Appomattox Court House National Historic Park on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Their encounter with history in Virginia also included the group's tour of Colonial America at Jamestown, Yorktown, Williamsburg, Farmville, Richmond, Charlottesville and back to Appomattox.

Each of the 13 original colonies was well represented on this special Bicentennial tour.

Following the tour here Thursday, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Mathews were hosts at their home for an outdoor cook-out for the entire group.

LOCAL STUDENT RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

Steve represented the National Honor Society on both "Klassroom Kwiz" and "Purely Academic." He also attended the Bicentennial Re-enactment of The First Continental Congress in March as a Virginia representative through the ACHS Hi-Y and the Virginia YMCA. Steve also participated in the Senior Class Play as the character "Mr. Hurley."

In the summer of 1975, Steve was a member of the Virginia delegation to National Rural Electric Week in Washington, D.C. as a representative from Appomattox.

In 1974, Steve attended the National American Institute on Cooperation at Kansas State University as the top State winner in the 4-H Agribusiness Program. Steve has also represented the Appomattox Community Senior 4-H Club on "Klassroom Kwiz" in 1974 and 1975.

Steve, an employee of Superior Trees Nursery in Appomattox, is the son of Mrs. Nancy S. Webb of Route 2, Appomattox, and the late Thomas Fitch Cawthorn.

Steve will be entering Lynchburg College this fall and plans to major in Accounting.

RED CROSS - THE GOOD NEIGHBOR - THE GOOD NEIGHBOR IS YOU

What kind of person would get involved in something that: Is without profit? Has impossible hours? Is involved in one disaster after another? That even asks for blood? The Fund Raising Committee of the Appomattox County Chapter of the American Red Cross hopes you will be that person by answering the letter, which you have received by mail, with a contribution to the Red Cross.

Farm Bureau Representatives Met With Congressman

Federal estate tax reforms were one of the major issues discussed when Appomattox Farm Bureau met with Congressman Dan Daniel.

This was one of seven Congressional meetings held by Farm Bureau leaders across the state. County presidents, legislative directors, women's committee chairmen and young farmer representatives met with Congressmen to discuss current issues before Congress.

Appomattox County Farm Bureau leaders met with Representative Daniel at Keysville, Va.

Representating the Appomattox Farm Bureau were President, Jimmy Rosser; and Horace Coleman, member.

"This type of meeting gives us an opportunity to explain our position on many issues, and to obtain the support of our Congressman," said Rosser. "It also gives the Congressman a reading of what his constituency is thinking."

The purpose of the annual Congressional meeting was to inform the elected officials of grassroots reaction to issues before Congress, and to hear a report from the Congressman.

Besides the estate tax reforms, Farm Bureau leaders discussed the organization's positon on federal spending, inflation, land use planning, minimum wage, grain and peanut legislation, and the food stamp program.

Appomattox County annually participates in these meetings with Congressmen, and keeps in contact with all elected officials to speak for more than 180 member families. There are more than 40,000 Farm Bureau member families in Virginia, and more than 2.5 million in the American Farm Bureau Federation.

It is the largest farm organization in the county, state and nation.

Scouts Plan Bicentennial Event

The Virginia Skyline Girl Scout Council, in celebration of the Bicentennial, is holding a Council-Wide Event at Expoland, Fisherville, on May 14, 15 and 16, 1976. The theme is "76 THEN AND NOW", celebrating our heritage - past, present and future - with each other and with the public. For this Council, this will be the very first Council-Wide event for all age levels in Girl Scouting. The Council is comprised of 37 counties in Central and Western Virginia and one in West Virginia. It is expected that over 3,000 girls and 500 adults, representing 185 troops will participate in the various festivities scheduled for the week-end.

One of our local troops that will be going is Troop 357 of Coneord, leaders are Bea Cutshall, Marge Dutka and Linda Foster. They and their 17 girls plan to be a part of the 1,000 Girl Scouts camping at Expoland over the week end. The troop will take part in the worship program in Fishersville Church on Sunday morning, May 16.

The main program will be held on May 15. The opening ceremony at 10 a.m. will feature the all-girl American Eagle Fife and Drum Corps from Williamsburg. The closing ceremony at 4 p.m. will include a Council-Wide Girls' Chorus. During the day some 79 exhibits will be on view in the Main Hall, covering a variety of things from early settlements, homemaking, cooking needlework, and crafts to toys and games. Troop 317 will take a part in one of these demonstrations, a project which they have prepared for all year. Folk dancing, a parade of Girl Scout uniforms through the years, and local historical skits will be presented on stage in the Pavilion.

Preparation for this event was started in March, 1975. It was felt that this was a great time for the Girl Scouts to express their patriotism and love of country as well as to be active in the future of the U.S.

The public is cordially invited to share in this exciting Event, and it is hoped that people will take the opportunity as they travel to Expoland to visit the many historical places of interest in this area. Expoland is easily accessible from Interstate 64 by the Fishersville - Stuarts Draft Exit (Route 608). There will be a nominal fee of $1.00 per adult and 50c for children.

Goodman Honored

Herbert H. Goodman, CLU of Appomattox and Buckingham Counties will be honored at the Farm Bureau Round Table Conference at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York, May 12-16.

Goodman will be recognized as one of the outstanding advisors of the Virginia Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Company during the five-day business conference.

He and his wife, Nancy, will be guests of the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in recognition of his writing of new fire, casualty and life insurance, and service of policyholders and Farm Bureau members.

He will be one of ten Virginians recognized at this conference.

"These men have excelled in sales and service and are the ten top Farm Bureau Insurance advisors in Virginia for 1975," said G. Milton Cheatham, CLU, director of sales for the farm Bureau Companies.

The Virginians will be meeting with other Round Table members from nine Southern states.

4-H Members Enjoy Cake Decorating

Hixburg was the setting for the past 4-H Lucky Clover 4-H Club monthly meeting held on April 12, 1976. The members were entertained with cake decorating instructions by Mrs. Ragland and Mrs. Foster, both from Prospect. A layer cake and a sheet cake were decorated by Mrs. Ragland. She explained the fundamentals of decorating. Miss Cynthia Hix and Sallie Robinson, both 4-H members, took part by assisting Mrs. Ragland.

During the business segment of the meeting, President Cynthia Hix, brought the meeting to order. Members rose to the salute of the national and 4-H flags. The past minutes were read by Lisa Dickerson, secretary and Vicki Glover gave the treasurer's report. The club's bank balance was $31.98 plus $50 in savings. District demonstration contest winners from the Lucky Clover 4-H Club were recognized. They were Cynthia Hix, third place, blue ribbon, in the Home Environment category and Vicki Glover, second in Share-the-Fun. Lisa Dickerson was also recognized for having placed second in the county, Virginia Bicentennial Poster Contest.

A week end camp out was brought up as new business. It was held April 30-May 2. All 4-H members were invited to attend.

A junior demonstration contest was held April 24. All junior members were urged to participate. Interstate exchange hosts were still needed and 4-H'ers were asked to volunteer. The members were told of the county clean-up week. Everyone was asked to help. The club made the final arrangements and decisions for an Easter Egg Hunt held at Pamplin Elementary School April 15, 1976.

Refreshments were served by Nancy Scruggs, Vicki Glover, Mrs. Ragland and Mrs. Foster.

President Cynthia Hix then adjourned the meeting.

Installation of CB Base Antenna Not Always Safe

Installing a permanent citizen's band base station radio antenna may not be the safe, simple job it sometimes appears.

The dramatic recent rise in the popularity of the CB radio is being paralled by a surge in the growth of home or office base station antennas - and a rise in injuries to enthusiasts putting up these new antennas near power lines.

"All too often some eager CB fan will underestimate the weight of his new base antenna or the effects of the wind on it," reports D. C. Stables, Vepco's Farmville district manager. "He'll let the antenna swing against a power line and suffer serious injury."

Contact between the metal antenna, by its nature an excellent conductor, and any power line can have serious consequences for those handling the antenna structure, Mr. Stales said. "Even small power lines serving individual homes can present dangers," he added.

The Vepco official urged those planning to erect an antenna near any power line to employ a professional antenna firm for the project. For those planning to put up their own free-standing or attached base antenna, he offered these suggestions:

1. Know the exact location of all power lines within 150 feet.

2. Locate the antenna a horizontal distance from the line greater than the total height of the antenna.

3. Guy or wire the antenna structure before standing it up to make sure it will not fall toward any power lines.

Mr. Stables adds, "A new CB base antenna can improve enjoyment of this popular hobby -- if handled in a planned, safe manner."
